Charity launches appeal in memory of Joseph

A HONITON cancer charity that campaigns to improve hospital care for terminally ill patients is launching a fresh appeal for support – a year after its founder lost her husband to the illness.

Jay Woodward, with the help of her daughter Gaby, set up the Joseph Woodward Foundation to fight for dedicated, personal care for hospitalised cancer patients, following the death of her husband on April 26th last year.

The family wants to ensure that others do not experience the “week of hell” they went through during Mr Woodward’s final days in hospital, and hope to raise money to cover the cost of single rooms for terminally ill patients.

The foundation was established in October, but Mrs Woodward is now appealing for members of the community to come forward and support the charity’s work by becoming trustees.

in hospital but when that is the only place you can go, we want to see dedicated rooms for cancer patients,” she said.

ON YER BIKE | Organisers of Honiton's Sausage and Cider Festival put on a show to remember, despite the wet weather over the Bank Holiday weekend, with thousands of music fans flocking to the showground.

Revellers braved the rain to enjoy two days of entertainment, in support of the Devon Freewheelers charity.

Volunteer rider John Patrick (right) arrived at the festival on Saturday morning, and was joined by a handful of Honiton's young air cadets.

“It should be more like a home away from home, with space for family and friends if they want to stay with them.

“That kind of contact, to know that he had someone there with him day and night, would have given my husband peace of mind.”

Jay and Joseph had only been married for four months when he was diagnosed in 2011, and he sadly died a year ago this week after a long battle with cancer.

Originally from Liverpool, Mr Woodward worked in East Devon as a transport consultant before he began to experience breathing difficulties that led to his diagnosis.

After undergoing life-saving surgery and many subsequent months fighting the illness, he was taken to the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital on Easter Sunday last year.

He sadly died just six days later on a ward that Mrs Woodward says was “packed and very cramped”.

Further warnings after another cliff fall

VISITORS to the Sidmouth seafront have been warned to keep away from the cliff fall blackspot at East Beach, after two more people narrowly escaped another dangerous incident.

Residents have once again been urged to steer clear of the area, following another huge cliff collapse last weekend.

Two people – including a young child – were spotted in the closed off area underneath the cliff, in the hours before and after the latest incident.

East Devon District Council warned beachgoers to "take responsibility for their own safety", after more visitors were spotted at the site near Pennington Point in January.

Similar warnings have been issued in recent months by the Sidmouth neighbourhood police team and the Sidmouth Lifeboat crew.

From the editor's chair Don't waste your vote

IT'S been one of the longest and certainly the dirtiest elections campaigns of modern times (don't we say that after every election?). And to think that if one party does not win an overall majority, which seems likely, we could have to go through all this again in a few weeks. God forbid!

There is no doubt in my view that the populace is totally fed up with politicians and no wonder considering how they behave and the liberties they have taken in recent years.

With party politics playing a greater role in local government, that view is also prevalent when it comes to electing our local representatives. To a degree that's unfair for most of them are decent people doing a difficult, thankless job.

Say what you like about our local councillors (and I often have in this column), we should be thankful that there are those prepared to give up their time to serve the community.

The problem with local elections at county and district in recent years, you have had to be a member of a political party to be sure of winning a place. On East Devon District Council for example only seven independent councillors occupy the 59 seats.

That, of course, may change this year, with the newly-formed East Devon Alliance endorsing 37 candidates and targeting some of the big hitters.

It's the first time since local government was reorganised in 1974 that there has been such a challenge and it will be interesting to see whether they will make any impact.

The most important thing is that you exercise your vote – don't miss the opportunity to influence the future direction of the area in which you live.

AXMINSTER & SEATON Doug reunited with 1947 cup winner's medal

A FORMER footballer has been reunited with his precious 1946-47 Axminster Hospital Cup winner's medal he thought he'd lost forever.

Douglas Spiller, 85, played left back for Beer Albon in the 2-1 victory over fierce rivals Seaton Town at Axminster.

The first step towards a happy reunion was taken a few months ago when Colyton-based historian and former football referee Ken Clifford was approached by a friend who mentioned that he possessed a 1946-47 Axminster Hospital Cup winner's medal, and wondered if Ken could try to trace its rightful owner.

When reunited with the medal in his Seaton home last week, Douglas said: "It is good to solve the mystery. I will keep it in a safe place now."

Police target drug crime and boy racers

POLICE in Ottery are targeting drug offenders and boy racers, as part of their latest efforts to control crime in the town.

Officers from the neighbourhood police team are also investigating recent break-ins at some of Ottery's derelict buildings, as well as damage to the skate park and tennis club.

The new crime targets come as the force reports a slight reduction in the number of offences recorded in the town, reflecting a downward trend across Devon.

But the team says it is following up residents' concerns in an attempt to ensure Ottery becomes a "perfect place".

PC Buffie Cavin said drugs had become a "big issue" in Ottery and that five warrants had recently been executed at properties in the town.

members of the community to come forward and support the charity's work by becoming trustees.

COLYTON & COLYFORD Local traders call for end to all-day parking

COLYTON traders have spoken out against drivers who "abuse" free on-street parking, which they say has become "detrimental" to the town.

A number of traders are now calling for time-restricted parking on one side of Market Street to put an end to drivers parking outside their shops all day, which they claim is preventing potential customers from visiting.

Anton Bolton from Colyton Butchers said: "Some people park in Market Place all day and some drivers abuse the free parking and leave their cars here all week. Something has to be done."

"We are suffering from it in Colyton. People who just want to stop, shop and go don't want to pay for half an hour in the car park; they just want to stop outside for five minutes but they can't."

"All of us are in agreement that something has to be done – parking restrictions on just one side of the road so that people can stop outside the shops."

A Devon County Council spokesman said: "The issue of parking restrictions is something which communities can raise with their local county councillor, who works with our teams to set priorities for work."

"We would also liaise with the parish council in any future review. However, there is currently no funding set aside for a traffic order in Colyton."

SOUTH SOMERSET

Local charity fears for Nepalese it supports

A SOUTH Somerset charity which supports children in poverty-stricken countries around the world fears that some of those it has helped may have died in the devastating earthquake suffered in Nepal.

The School in a Bag (SIAB) organisation, based at Chilthorne Domer, near Yeovil, as part of the Piers Simon Appeal charity, has sent thousands of schoolbags containing basic books, pens, colouring pencils and eating utensils to children around the globe.

This includes 3,600 bags to the Helambu area of Nepal which was hit by the 7.8 magnitude earthquake on Saturday, April 25th and has left around 4,000 people killed and thousands more homeless.

The SIAB and Piers Simon Appeal has launched a special webpage to raise funds for the relief effort in Nepal at www.justgiving.com/NepalEarthquakeAppeal2015

The Piers Simon Appeal was formed following the death of former Preston School and Yeovil College student Piers Simon in the Asian tsunami of Boxing Day 2004.

Sports wall set to complete project

A PROJECT to enhance sports facilities in Honiton will be completed this summer, council bosses have confirmed.

A sports 'activity wall' – the third and final development in the project – is due to be constructed at Allhallows playing field by the end of June.

The £15,000 multi-use wall will include a goal for football, a net for basketball and netball, and markings for cricket.

It marks the completion of a three-stage scheme to invest in improved sports facilities for the town.

The activity wall is the scheme's final development, after two other projects were completed earlier this year.

Safety barriers were constructed around the pitch at Honiton Rugby Club, while Honiton's new petanque court at Mountbatten Park was ready for action in March.

East Devon District Council has spent around £50,000 in total on the three projects, after working with Honiton Town Council to ask residents

by Jack Dixon

what facilities they would like to see.

The money has come from the community contributions made by housing developers responsible for several new schemes in Honiton.

Around £14,000 was spent on the petanque court, with just over £20,000 donated to the rugby club to cover the cost of materials for its safety barriers.

Voters prepare for the polls

HONITON is poised for polling day, with thousands of residents expected to turn out and cast their votes in this week's local and national elections.

Months of campaigning will finally come to a head on Thursday, as voters have their say at the ballot box.

Candidates are competing for seats representing Honiton on the town and district councils, while votes will also be cast in the race to Westminster.

In the parliamentary election, sitting Conservative MP Neil Parish will defend his 9,000 majority against Paul Edwards for the Green Party, Stephen Kearney for the Liberal Democrats, Caroline Kolek for Labour, and Graham Smith for UKIP.

Unlike many other parishes in East Devon, Honiton will also see contested local elections this year.

A total of 23 candidates put their names forward to fill the 18 available town council positions, while the electorate will also have a say in who represents Honiton at East Devon District Council.

UKIP has emerged as the strongest challenger to the Conservative group in Honiton, with five candidates standing for district council seats across the town's two wards.

One Labour, one independent and one East Devon Alliance candidate complete the list of those standing against the five Conservatives.

The polls will open at 7am on Thursday morning, before the doors are shut at 10pm.

Electors will be able to cast their votes at one of three polling stations in Honiton – the Mackarness Hall, the Kings Centre and the Heathfield Inn.

Charity appeal launch

She said: "I hardly ever saw anybody from the hospital. I was scared stiff to leave him. It was like they did not want my husband to die with dignity."

"I had to leave my husband every night to come home because there wasn't anywhere for me to stay."

Mrs Woodward now says she wants to encourage volunteers to come forward to help the charity campaign for unused rooms to be converted into private wards for terminally ill patients.

The foundation's aim is to improve facilities at the RD&E first, before fundraising for other hospitals across the country.

Mrs Woodward added: "I set up this charity in the hope that, in my husband's memory, his foundation can raise enough money to make a difference for terminally ill cancer patients and their families in hospital, so that they all have single rooms that are comfortable in which to see out the time that is left. No one should have to go through what my husband did or be treated the way he was, and I am going to try my best to make sure that that never happens again."

Volunteers with legal or accounting experience would be particularly helpful, but Mrs Woodward said she would also like to hear from anyone who can support the foundation as a fundraiser. For more information or to volunteer to support the charity, email jwfoundation@hotmail.com or call 01404 234415.

New group puts spotlight on mental health

FOUR women have formed the group Well Mind to raise mental health awareness in young people through workshops and performances in Colyton.

One of them is Joanne Werb, whose son George took his life at the age of 15 in June 2013.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Her friends Sara Perry, Niki Cozens and Maddy Cozens make up the quartet, which is also fundraising for Young Minds, a mental health charity for young people.

Joanne said: "During the two-day event we will invite young people to take part in confidence-boosting workshops and a theatrical singing and dancing performance.

"We call ourselves Well Mind and formed in February of this year and have already raised over £900 via donations and table top sales of donated goods."

George used to be a member of Sara Perry's Seaton-based drama club Con-fidence.

Sara closed the group a few years ago, but has reopened it under the name of the Sara Perry Academy.

Joanne explained: "George was a former member of Con-fidence, which has been the inspiration for this new project.

"George was one of the first students to join Con-fidence in 2007 and his passing was not only of immense sadness but an awakening of the serious issues concerning young people and mental health.

"After his death, the four of us teamed up to bring back the heart of what Confi-dance was all about, inspiring young people in performing arts and to help empower children who have emotional issues.

"On August 7th and 8th, we are putting on several events in Colyton Town Hall to raise mental health awareness in young people.

"This will include FreeBird, an inspirational performance piece devised and choreographed by Sara Perry, a theatre workshop, high tea and a children's disco amongst other things.

"The two-day event will invite young people in the community to take part in confidence-boosting workshops and a theatrical singing and dancing performance."

If the event is successful, they hope to take the concept to other towns and schools too.

More details, including a time and date for auditions, will be announced in due course.

A35 delays expected

MOTORISTS have been told to expect inconvenience and delays when the A35 is shut overnight between Honiton and Axminster, and then between Axminster and Bridport.

The first phase of maintenance work will see overnight A35 closures between Honiton and Axminster commencing at 8pm on Monday, May 11th and finishing at 6am on Saturday, May 16th.

The second phase will see overnight closures between Axminster and Bridport from 8pm on Monday, May 18th, finishing at 6am on Thursday, May 21st.

South West Highways and Balfour Beatty Infrastructure Services (SWH/BBIS) is the managing agent contractor.

Operations manager Paul Mitchell said: "It is necessary to carry out some carriageway repairs and surface treatment works on the A35. The carriageway repairs will be carried out overnight.

"The closures will be used to facilitate all the required repair and surface treatment works and will also be used to carry out as many routine maintenance activities (sign cleaning, road sweeping etcetera) as possible.

"This will mean that the requirement for further traffic management along the A35 will be minimised for the remainder of the year."

Mr Mitchell explained that the work schedule is dependent on the weather, so is subject to change.

He also warned there will be delays and disruption, saying: "During the closure periods access will be maintained for residents living within the closure.

"However, this may only be from one direction depending on the actual location of the works to be undertaken each shift, and may change where the closures are planned for consecutive nights.

"Please note that during the closure period, some travel delays should be expected.

"We would suggest allowing extra time for your journey if an alternative or deferred travel arrangements cannot be made.

"During the closures there will be no route through the works area for any vehicles with the exception of emergency service vehicles on emergency calls. We have tried to minimise disruption to road users and residents by restricting our works to night time only.

"Where operations are carried out close to properties we will endeavour to undertake as much of any noisy activities before midnight.

"However work will continue through the night and some disruption may occur throughout the work period.

"For all the road closures a fully signed traffic diversion route will be implemented during the closure periods."

Additional information regarding access details for residents and businesses affected by these works will be available on request by e-mailing connecta30@balfourbeatty.com

■ ALL SMILES: Festival-goers Marie Pulman and Andy Reed made the most of their weekend, despite the wet weather

Downpours fail to dampen Sausage and Cider Festival

THOUSANDS of revellers braved the wind and rain to celebrate Honiton's second Sausage and Cider Festival at the weekend.

Visitors arrived in their droves to mark the occasion, held for the first time over two days.

The town's major fundraiser – organised by the Honiton Foundation in support of local charity Devon Freewheelers – was washed out by the rain. But that didn't stop crowds of festival-goers enjoying 48 hours

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedia.co.uk

of live music and entertainment.

Organisers moved the event to the Honiton Showground this year, and the festival returned bigger and better than before, with a full line-up of acts on each day.

Traders and community groups also packed the festival site, filling every available pitch space well in advance.

Another spectacular show was put on to boost the charity's profile across the South West, with performances from a string of musical acts.

The event's two headliners paid tribute to legendary pop stars Freddie Mercury and ABBA, as thousands of festival fans stayed the course despite the wet weather.

And the change of location enabled organisers to lay on a full musical line-up, with three times as many traders as last year.

Festival chiefs are hoping to build on the event's popularity, with grand ambitions for the future of Honiton's Sausage and Cider spectacular.

■ PERFECT PINT: Pandora Wright and Graham Hunt from Borough Hill Cider served up the drinks over the weekend

■ SMASH AND GRAB: Honiton Lions Club collected contributions to be put towards local causes, at their plate-smashing fairground stall

■ HORSING AROUND: Ponies from the Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue charity were on parade at the showground on Saturday

■ SINGIN' IN THE RAIN: London four-piece Decoy Jet entertained the crowds on Saturday afternoon

Real life history lesson

AN AMBITIOUS school project has given two Honiton teenagers the chance to take part in a real-life history lesson at one of the Second World War's most shocking sites.

Ben Willis and Chloe Young, both 16, flew out to Poland recently to visit the Nazi concentration camps at Auschwitz.

The pair spoke of their shock and astonishment, after spending a day at the main site of Hitler's Holocaust.

Now they hope to help other young people understand the historical importance of the Nazi atrocities by passing on their experiences of the camps.

"It's amazing how many people don't know anything about it," said Chloe, a Sixth Form student at Honiton Community College.

"The main aim of this project is to pass on the message and make sure that nobody forgets what happened there."

Ben, also in the Sixth Form at Honiton, added: "This was more than just a history class. There is a lot more to do to make sure everyone learns the lessons of the Holocaust."

The pair, who are both studying History at A Level, were specially chosen to represent the college, alongside schools from across Devon.

They took part in a number of workshops to prepare for the visit, and heard from a Holocaust survivor in person, before flying out to Krakow recently.

"It was very difficult to know how to react", said Ben.

"It was very quiet, and there was an eerie feeling about the place.

"We had a chance to look at the sheds where people slept, as well as the extermination chambers where thousands were killed.

"It was chilling, and the conditions were inhuman."

Chloe added: "The only way to describe it was medieval – it's hard to believe this happened only 70 years ago.

"The visit has really made me value my

'Lessons From Auschwitz' project, organised by the Holocaust Educational Trust, which aims to help students understand one of history's most appalling events.

More than a million Jews are thought to have been killed at the infamous network of camps, which are kept open today for educational tours.

"It was very difficult to know how to react", said Ben.

"It was very quiet, and there was an eerie feeling about the place.

"We had a chance to look at the sheds where people slept, as well as the extermination chambers where thousands were killed.

"It was chilling, and the conditions were inhuman."

Chloe added: "The only way to describe it was medieval – it's hard to believe this happened only 70 years ago.

"The visit has really made me value my freedom much more." The pair have already shared their experiences with classmates, and in the next academic year they plan to help some of the college's younger students to learn about the Holocaust.

World War One centenary group makes final tribute

AS A lasting tribute to the men from Beer who served their country in the First World War, the 'Beer Village Remembers' website will be one that will survive for many generations in the future, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

The unveiling of the web site was the final act by Richard Scott and the Beer 2014 Group in a series of moving tributes to the people of Beer, whose lives were irredeemably marked by the events between 1914-18.

The website was designed by Cosmic, a social enterprise based in Honiton and was funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund's 'First World War: Then and Now' programme, which provided a total of £7,800 for a series of centenary events in Beer culminating in a moving parade through the village last August.

Mr Scott, chairman of the Beer 2014 Group, said: "The website will provide permanent storage for all the information and photos we have gathered so far on those from Beer who served in the First World War, and we will go on adding more information as it becomes available."

"The site will become a valuable resource for local and family historians, and we are extremely grateful for the support provided by the Heritage Lottery Fund which has made this possible."

The new website, which was unveiled to members of the parish council, the 2014 Group, and residents whose ancestors are mentioned on the site, as well as the village lacemakers and quilters last week, will provide a permanent home for the information and photographs which formed the basis of a four-day exhibition in August last year.

As well as the unveiling of the website the event also featured the official handover to the Mariners Hall committee of a piece of Beer lace and a quilt, both made in the village to mark the centenary. The items will go on display in the Mariners Hall.

The website can be viewed at www.beervillagrembers.org.uk

Seaton Scouts are kings of the castle

SEATON Scouts showed remarkable engineering skills when they won the East Devon District Scout Movement Sandcastle Competition in Lyme Regis.

Scouts from within the movement gathered in Lyme Regis on Sunday, April 26th to celebrate St George's Day, which included a parade, a church service and the sandcastle competition.

Leader of the 1st Seaton Group, Fran Clayton, said: "We had discussed and agreed a design at our last meeting. The team of Beavers, Cubs and Scouts worked furiously together for the half-hour to create an immense St George inspired castle with cross and flags, moat and stone, shell and fossil decoration.

by Anders Larsson

"They were then ecstatic when they were awarded the trophy as the winners."

Talking about the day as a whole, Fran said: "Special thanks must go to the Uplyme group, which hosted us all and organised for us to parade along the main street to a special service in St Michael's Church and then parade along the sea front to the Cobb.

"It was wonderful to see the onlookers enjoying our celebration with us."

Seaton Scouting has a full and fun packed programme, and anyone interested in learning can have a look online at seatonscouting.org

Scouts on parade for St George's Day

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedia.co.uk

MORE than 300 scouts from across the East Devon area processed through Lyme Regis on the Sunday before last to mark St George's Day.

Different troops across the area host the celebrations each year, and with this year's turn falling to the Uplyme-based 1st Lym Valley Scouts, it was decided to hold the parade just across the county border in Lyme Regis.

The 1st Lym Valley group were joined by scouts, cubs and beavers from Axminster, Seaton, Beer, Sidmouth, Ottery St Mary, Tipton St John, Wimble, Honiton and Colyton for a procession from Holmbush car park, down Broad Street to St Michael's Parish Church, led by the Blackdown Samba Band.

A special service was then held at the church led by the Reverend Jane Skinner and focusing on perseverance, leaving your mark on the world and having a go at things. A collection followed for Axminster-based charity The Project.

The procession then continued along Marine Parade, where the salute was taken by civic dignitaries, including chairman of West Dorset District Council, Councillor Gillian Summers; East Devon district councillor Graham Godbeer; Lyme Regis town councillors Michaela Ellis and Stan Williams; and Ann Liverton, chairman of East Devon District Scouts.

The scout troops continued to the Cobb where the procession was dismissed for a sandcastle building competition on the beach won by the Seaton group.

Luppitt fridge fire

A KITCHEN in Luppitt was badly damaged when a fridge caught fire.

The alarm was raised just before 2pm on Wednesday, April 22nd, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Fire engines from Honiton, Ottery St Mary and Middlemoor were sent to a report of a fire involving a fridge."

"The crews used four sets of breathing apparatus, a hose reel jet and a thermal imaging camera to extinguish the fire.

"A positive pressure ventilation fan was also used to ventilate the property. The kitchen sustained significant fire damage."

Whitford burglary

A HUSQVARNA chainsaw was stolen in a burglary in Whitford.

A private garage was broken into at some point between 10pm on Friday, April 17th and 9:30am the following day.

PCSO Andy Trott of Axminster Police said: "Entry was gained by the padlock being cut off. I would like to remind the general public that Devon And Cornwall Police can give security advice and mark property."

Anyone with information about the break-in is asked to call the force switchboard on 101 and quote crime number CR/026215/15.

fectively and succeed in making pupils want to learn.

"The governing body is knowledgeable, very involved in all school activities and holds the leadership to account very effectively."

The report also said that All Saints Primary School has every chance of being graded Outstanding if "the consistently good teaching becomes outstanding, by making sure that the most-able pupils always get work with sufficient challenge for them to achieve their best in lessons".

The report also asked for further progress in writing by "giving pupils more frequent opportunities to write at greater length and in more depth in subjects outside of English lessons emphasising the importance of good handwriting and good presentation of work for every pupil".

All Saints Primary School teamed up with Beer Primary School to form Ark Federation in October 2013, with Mr O'Mahony as executive head of both schools.

He concluded: "We are delighted with the outcome of the inspection, particularly given the high expectations of the new Ofsted framework, which is so much more demanding than previous ones."

"The report celebrates the school's continued capacity for improvement and is a just reward for the hard work and dedication of all members of the All Saints school family, including

■ OFFICIAL RECORD: Mr O'Mahony and some of the pupils have just read the report pupils, staff, governors and parents."

The new Ofsted report comes on top of an inspection of the Church of England school by diocesan inspectors last year, which pronounced it outstanding.

In addition, All Saints Primary

School was identified in the Sunday Times' Parent Power annual survey as one of the top 200 state primary schools in the country, following an analysis of its academic results in 2014.

Dogs and cats at Fairwater

A NEW exhibition is currently on display at the Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch.

Put together by husband and wife team Kevin and Anne Townsend, it will be on display for the next few months.

The exhibition has a range of themes running from local scenes through to their speciality, which is a range of box canvases of dogs and cats produced to catch the image of the animal. In fact, visitors can take a picture of their dog or cat to the hotel and get a painting back on the same day!

The third element of the exhibition is a range of stunning ceramic figures. Each piece is individually crafted using resin clay which is moulded, pierced and sculpted onto a handmade mould. Then clay is added or removed until the piece is complete. The figure is slowly dried and afterwards painted using a variety of mediums resulting in a unique piece of art like no other.

ART SOCIETY (Seaton & District)

NORMAN Rossiter gave an entertaining demo to Seaton and District Art Society in April.

He uses acrylics to paint wildlife and nature. His picture was one of ponies huddled under a tree in Dartmoor snow. Drawing quickly with a brush he captured the essence of the animals. Norman then built up his picture in layers. He then added details using brushes and his fingers.

Among his useful money-saving tips were to use gesso instead of white paint, car lacquer instead of varnish, and use a small number of brushes, including the largest ones possible. He used a chisel-shaped brush for fine lines, broad strokes and tiny dots, demonstrating that it is the artist who does the drawing and not the brush. With his limited range of colours, the cool blues, whites and greens contrasting with the warmer browns, he achieved a pleasing and harmonious whole.

The next demonstration will be at Colyton Peace Memorial Hall on Monday May 4th, at 2pm, when Christine Russell will be painting "Lavender Field in a Landscape" in oil. Free to members, visitors welcome at £3.

A Coffee Morning for Carnival funds will be held in the Town Hall on 15 August. Katie Darby offered a choice of Guided Walks in Exeter or a Canal Trip, probably in July.

A talk on the Fire and Rescue Service was given by local volunteer 'fireman', Tracey, who apologised for not being the chunky fireman expected! A very enjoyable talk on a very serious subject.

Julia Bealing won the ballot to attend a special garden party at Buckingham Palace hosted by HRH the Duchess of Cornwall.

The speaker was not able to attend and Deacon Becky Lovatt stepped in.

The flower of the month competition results were 1. Zelma 2. Denise 3. Chrissie. Competition of the month was won by Ann Attridge.

Next meeting is the Annual Meeting on Tuesday 19th May.

NATIONAL TRUST (Colyford)

THE National Trust Axe Valley Centre at Colyford had their final talk of this season. This took place on 15th April and was an amusing and tactile talk by Dr FE Burroughes entitled The Wonderful World of Glass.

Dr Burroughes spoke of the origins of natural glass from volcanoes and the various methods through the ages of producing glass. To illustrate his talk he passed around various pieces of glass to hold and look at, some of which were very delicate, and also pieces of Bristol Blue Glass. Everyone was very cautious and all pieces went home with him intact. A very unusual and enjoyable experience.

PROBUS (Seaton)

AFTER a 65-mile drive from Dorset in his 1933 Austin Seven Home Guard van, the ebullient Dale Johnson spoke about the Home Guard to the Seaton and District Probus Club and guests. Dale was dressed in an original uniform and had brought with him his rifle, bayonet and many items associated with his talk.

The club was impressed with Dale's knowledge when he acted as their tour guide at the Bovington Tank Museum so knew they would learn a great deal about the Home Guard. He did not disappoint.

The last meeting of the club until the autumn will be on Wednesday, 29 April, at 10.00am at St. Gregory's Church Centre when Molly Bond will present Things You Probably Never Knew About the Titanic. During the summer the club will meet fortnightly for coffee and also dine out occasionally in Seaton. # What gives people the right to take or destroy other's property?

I HAVE never written to a newspaper editor before this month, and now find myself writing to you twice. I live in Axminster, and amongst my neighbours there is a 94-year-old and 102-year-old woman who both live alone.

The 94-year-old had her front window smashed by vandals a couple of weeks ago, and the 102-year-old had her garden containers tipped over and thrown to the ground last night. The cowards who perpetrated it ran off of course.

The last outrage happened at 12.30am and, from the noise as they were walking past, the boys were drunk. No excuse and I find the whole business reprehensible.

What is it about youth today that feels that the only way to get their jollies is to destroy other people's property? Not all youth, but a significant minority.

What are parents teaching their children? Self-centredness, lack of control and no respect for others and their property seem to be the norm. What makes people think that they have the right to use, take or destroy what doesn't belong to them? It seems to be the same attitude as I recently wrote about dog owners, reminiscent of racism, homophobia and bigotry, preying on those weaker, or those perceived of as "different" with a dose of just plain nastiness thrown into the mix.

I despair of where our country is going at times. The poor are marginalized and have to rely on food banks and only have themselves to blame, according to a government that has presided over a large increase in child poverty.

Potential immigrants are cockroaches, it's always someone else's problem. And the people who should offer some hope, i.e. the young, don't always fulfill that hope.

I normally have a positive outlook on life, and firmly believe we are here to make the most of and get the maximum enjoyment out of life, but sometimes...

I MARTIN,
Axminster

Leave housing associations and trusts alone

THE following letter is copy of that sent to Neil Parish MP:

I have already sent an email to the Prime Minister registering my dismay at the Tories' latest idea of Right to Buy. What right have you to legislate that housing associations should sell off precious rented accommodation at a discount?

These associations and other trusts have, over more than a hundred years, provided accommodation at affordable rents in major cities. If you diminish this accommodation for the less well paid, who will provide all the services so essential in a city?

The housing associations are promised a fraction of the money raised from the sale of high value council houses; after some is put into the treasury, building new council houses and developing brownfield sites may take a long time!

By all means do the first stage and build replacement council houses and develop brownfield sites but leave the trusts and housing associations alone. Build more affordable homes or part-ownership homes and this will give those who aspire to home ownership a realistic start on the ladder.

Not everyone wants to own their own home and not everyone wishes to take on the responsibility of maintenance.

I know the lack of my vote in this constituency won't make any difference but I hope there are thousands across the country as appalled as I am by this Tory idea.

KATIE DARBY,
Colyton

Our votes on May 7th 'won't make a difference'

IT was kind of the Minister for Overseas Corporations to reassure the voters of Devon East that we live in a "safe seat".

He has relieved us of any guilt about how we ought to vote in the forthcoming elections.

Many of us were beginning to feel we might have a duty to put aside our distaste, hold our noses, and endorse our previous MP, as an insurance against the chaos of a House of Commons packed with powerful independent-minded parliamentarians exercising their conscience and consulting their constituents.

But, thanks to the confident minister, we now know that not one of our votes on May 7th will make any difference to the outcome.

The predictable certainties of a well-whipped one-party state are already assured. This renders Devon East's voters free to speak, free to act, and free to vote for what we believe in, a luxury that will regrettably be denied to our pre-selected representative.

So, neighbours, we are safe; safe to celebrate our day of democracy, safe to consider the character of the candidates, and safe in the knowledge that a vote for Claire Wright can do no harm.

I remain, your obedient servant,

ROBERT CRICK,
Independent District Council candidate for Exmouth, Littleham

There was no 'slanging match' at hustings

WHAT a pity that your article on the parliamentary candidates contained inaccuracies (Pulmans View, April 28th).

The Labour Caroline Kolek candidate did not get into a "slanging match" with a member of the audience.

A question was asked to the panel, "was it right that bad teachers receive the same pay as good teachers?" All answered and the chairman asked the questioner if these responses answered his question. He then posed an opinion on bad teachers.

Mrs Kolek offered to discuss with him after the hustings.

Thanks to dedicated healthcare services

THROUGH your newspaper I wish to express my deepest gratitude and appreciation to RV Care Honiton, Dr Philip Taylor, the many disciplines within the Axminster community nursing teams and Coneybere/Willow Day Care for the support and care received during my husband's illness and in his final stages of life.

It was my dearest wish for him to be cared for and nursed at home; this was accomplished and my wish tings but he continued with an inaccurate statement, that unions decided teacher pay scales. Mrs Kolek informed him that was not the case as she was speaking from experience as an executive member of a large teaching union (she was honorary treasurer for three and a half years, as well as chairing the finance committee on the GTCE so your comment of her being a union rep was rather demeaning).

By the way, Caroline received the biggest applause of the evening.

STEPHEN KOLEK

was granted.

We are very fortunate and blessed here in Axminster to have such dedicated and caring people within our health services and I cannot thank them enough for supporting and helping me through a very difficult time.

The loneliness of a loss
THE pain of losing a loved one is a life experience that comes to us all. Even though death and disaster are broadcast to us on a daily basis, it is one that we hope and pray we can avoid, but, ultimately, have to face. Bereavement can leave us temporarily crushed by despair and loneliness – a loneliness that feels unremitting and isolating, even if we are surrounded by friends and family, which many people are not.

Although everyone deals with loss differently, and it covers many situations, for example, divorce or separation, childlessness or disabling injury, there are stages we go through. We experience a process of grief and mourning, and it is the quality of love and support we have during this process which can make the difference between hope for a life ahead with meaning and happiness, or descent into loneliness and depression.

Many people have family and friends to help, but sometimes, feelings about the person who has been lost or the circumstances of their death or leaving can be conflicted or traumatic. It may not be possible to share these feelings with your family, or you may feel that you are burdening them too much, in which case counselling may help.

Sister Act is coming to Seaton

GREAT excitement is brewing in Seaton as Testudo Musical Players launch their production of Sister Act to be staged at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall from Wednesday 16th to Saturday, September 19th. The society are thrilled to have secured the licence for this spectacular show which is a fun filled roller coaster of uplifting music and comedy as it tells the story of Delores (Fabulous Baby) and her influence on the nuns when she has to seek sanctuary in their convent.

Rehearsals are launched on Tuesday, May 12th, 7.30pm at Seaton Town Hall, when director, Debbie Bradley will give a synopsis of the script and M.D. Mick Redston will run through the music. Auditions pieces will also be given out to those wanting to audition on Tuesday, May 19th.

If you would like to be part of this exciting production go along on the 12th or to find out more telephone the producer Mary Bowles on: 01297 23202.

Performance of Mendelssohn's Elijah

MENDELSSOHN, born in Hamburg in 1809, was a prodigiously gifted child. He was composing string symphonies at the age of thirteen, a full orchestral symphony at fifteen, and at sixteen an octet which has become one of the most popular chamber works in the repertoire. His 'Fingal's Cave' overture and his music for Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' have remained favourites for countless music lovers.

He met and performed before Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, and made, in all, ten visits to the British Isles.

The text of Elijah, written mostly by the composer himself, draws on Biblical texts, and describes Elijah's resurrection of a dead youth, a fierce contest between the Israelites and the followers of Baal as to which of their gods is the true one, a wonderfully graphic account of the coming of rain to drought-stricken Israe and the ascension of Elijah to heaven on a fiery chariot. The score also includes some serene, tuneful passages typical of the composer.

The all-important role of Elijah will be taken by the baritone David Fouracre. For nearly twenty years David pursued a career in retail management while at the same time becoming increasingly in demand as a baritone soloist. He has performed widely with choral societies as well as giving frequent recitals of English song, but although having taken most of the major oratorio bass roles, he admits that this Elijah will be a 'first' for him. Those who know his fine voice, musicality and sensitivity to words will be intrigued to hear this experienced performer interpreting for the first time such an excitingly dramatic role.

Other soloists will include Leslie Baker, admired throughout the south west as operatic and concert tenor as well working as choral conductor and clarinettist, the mezzo-soprano Rosamund Thomas and the soprano Chloë Stratta, an up-and-coming graduate from Manchester University who already has an impressive CV of musical achievements and performances to her name.

The society's Musical Director Dr Peter

Milner, a hard-working G.P. with a young family, has steered the society through the rehearsal period with great skill and good humour, and will conduct the performance bringing together an orchestra of hand-picked players from around the region to accompany. 'Elijah' is a thrilling work, both to perform and to listen to, and will give full scope to the members of the choral society; they will have the opportunity to sing their hearts out!

Elijah will be presented on Saturday, May 9th at The Gateway, Seaton, starting at 7.30 pm. Tickets (£10, free to students 18 and under) are available at The Gateway Box Office, Fore Street, Seaton, Tel: 01297 625699.

Vote for top British artist to come to Devon Honiton Gallery asks for public to vote

THELMA Hulbert Gallery (THG) is encouraging the public to vote for them. THG has been short-listed by Connect! as one of only five venues nationally to go to a vote to win top contemporary artist, Luke Jerram, to lead an event at THG in the October Museums at Night festival.

Luke Jerram, is an internationally renowned artist, with work exhibited throughout the world including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. He has chosen the venues to go through to the competition and you decide which venue will win.

"This is a rare opportunity to bring this top contemporary artist to Devon. Our goal is to secure as many votes as possible so please encourage all your family and friends to vote for us too", said Angela Blackwell – THG Curator.

The public vote will be open for two weeks from 11am Friday 1 May – 8pm Saturday 16 May. To vote, use the link <http://bit.ly/lukejerramconnect> and select Thelma Hulbert Gallery.

Once voting is underway, the Museums at Night website will display the percentage of votes per venue. However, from 5pm on Wednesday 13th May, Museums at Night will hide the percentages so that the announcement of the winning venues at 9pm on Saturday 16th May will be a surprise.

The winning venue receives a bursary of £3000 to support their event, enabling an ambitious and creative event. The venue coming second place will receive a £300 bursary, while those who come third will receive £200 each and fourth and fifth will receive £100 each, helping everyone to be part of the festival.

Vote to bring a top British artist to Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) Devon and help create a magical art installation.

For more details or how to vote, please visit www.thelmahulbert.com / or call 01404 45006 or email info@thelmahulbert.com

'The world's finest 60s tribute band' to play at The Gateway

Young Vic Theatre's A View from the Bridge and National Theatre Live's Man and Superman also to screen at the Seaton venue

DON'T miss a stellar cast led by Mark Strong (The Imitation Game; Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy) in the Young Vic's 'magnetic, electrifying, astonishingly bold' production of A View from the Bridge - the Evening Standard, Guardian and Independent's top theatre pick of 2014.

The great Arthur Miller confronts the American dream in this dark and passionate tale. In Brooklyn, longshoreman Eddie Carbone welcomes his Sicilian cousins to the land of freedom. But when one of them falls for his beautiful niece, they discover that freedom comes at a price. Eddie's jealous mistrust exposes a deep, unspeakable secret ñ one that drives him to commit the ultimate betrayal.

The visionary Ivo van Hove directs this stunning production of Miller's tragic masterpiece, broadcast from London's West End by National Theatre Live.

The production will be screened live at The Gateway, Seaton on Wednesday, May 6th. Doors open 6.30pm for a 7pm start. Approx running time 2hrs 30 mins

Tickets £12.50 in advance, or £15 on the door

Mark Strong in A View from the Bridge

ACADEMY Award nominee Ralph Fiennes (The English Patient, Schindler's List; Oedipus at the National Theatre) plays Jack Tanner in this exhilarating reinvention of Shaw's witty, provocative classic, Man and Superman.

A romantic comedy, an epic fairytale, a fiery philosophical debate, Man and Superman asks fundamental questions about how we live.

Jack Tanner, celebrated radical thinker and rich bachelor, seems an unlikely choice as guardian to the alluring heiress, Ann. But she takes it in her assured stride and, despite the love of a poet, she decides to marry and tame this dazzling revolutionary.

Tanner, appalled by the whiff of domesticity, is tipped off by his chauffeur and flees to Spain, where he is captured by bandits and meets The Devil.

An extraordinary dream-debate, heaven versus hell, ensues. Following in hot pursuit, Ann is there when Tanner awakes, as fierce in her certainty as he is in his.

The performance will screen live at The Gateway on Wednesday, May 20th. Doors open 6.30pm, performance 7.00pm. Approx running time 3hrs 45mins.

Tickets £12.50 in advance or £15 on the door.

A Splendid Spring at The Beehive

WE ARE having a splendid spring at The Beehive.

There's been sensational Comedy theatre here from fabulous local companies, a sell out gig for India Electric Co. and we are now looking forward to our brand new cinema season, then we keenly anticipate fantastic dance theatre from Panta Rei and some tremendous music with our Honiton Festival concerts in May.

Add to the mix a Rock n' Roll, Rockabilly celebration of Johnny Cash and June Carter on the 17th of May and The Honiton Community College, BIG GIG, 22nd May, with a brilliant selection of cover numbers played and sung by the most outstanding musicians at the college, (for only a fiver) then there is definitely something for everyone!

To top all that off, on May 23rd, there are Flamenco & Bollywood dance workshops, and an evening of Freestyle dance with Le Roc then on Friday 29th May we have the wonderful folk/roots duo Phillip Henry & Hannah Martin- BBC radio 2 Best Folk Duo 2014.

Extremely excited to be getting our cinema direct from the studios, we really hope that everyone enjoys the diverse range of films selected. Huge thanks must go to Honiton Community Cinema; Marianne Harman, Peter Corke, Ian Jeeves, Lindsay Hyslop, Katherine Ohlsen, Angeline Askew and June Brown for bringing film back to Honiton and establishing an audience and a lovely informal, friendly atmosphere for viewing films at The Beehive, long may it continue!

We are thrilled that some of the team are helping with the technical and programming aspects of the cinema. Once we are up and running, we hope to re-introduce the shorts prior to the main film.

After a successful first year, we'd like to say a big thank you to all of our supporters, users and visitors, for those of you who haven't visited us yet, you are always welcome. Always looking for volunteers we welcome any offers of help, this is your community centre so don't be shy, it's good fun and there are a great bunch of friendly folk to guide you.

Lastly we now have a suggestion box in the foyer and we'd love to know which films you would particularly like to see or perhaps a great act you can recommend, just drop your suggestion in the box and we'll see if we can grant your wish! See you soon. www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

What's Happening at Ilminster Arts Centre

THE merry month of May is here and with it the start of a new season at the Arts Centre. Our new brochure is out and has details of all our exhibitions, concerts, workshops and events from May Day until the end of August. You can pick up a copy at local TICs or of course at the Arts Centre.

In the Gallery 'The Magnificent Seven' exhibition runs until May 16th. The show features seven local artists and is proving a hit with our visitors, with red dots accompanying many exhibits. 'Reflections of Cornwall' opens on the 18th with a display of still lifes, botanical studies, landscape paintings and photography by The Lizard Art Group, evoking the rugged coastal landscape of the Lizard Peninsula.

You may want to keep Friday nights in May clear - you won't want to miss out on our fantastic line up of concerts. On Friday, May 8th, Concerts in the West present tenor Rupert Charlesworth and pianist Edwige Herchenroder, performing songs by Schubert, Brahms, Mendelssohn and Debussy. On Friday 15th the Arts Centre is crossing the Channel for an evening of French style jazz in the company of the talented and charismatic singer Gabrielle Ducombe and her Trio. The IAC Jammers keep things local on Friday 22 when they play a free gig featuring their favourite tunes. We conclude our musical month on Friday 29th with the welcome return of Dave Newton and his Trio, this time accompanied by sax player Andy Panayi and trumpeter Percy Persglove. We anticipate ticket sales for all these events to be brisk, so book early to avoid disappointment!

On Saturday 23rd we celebrate words, both spoken and sung at our unique A Way with Words event. Come and enjoy an informal evening of poetry, short story and song.

Our local Craft Market returns on May 2nd, while our bustling Antiques and Vintage Collectables Fair opens for business on 23 May. On May 14th Bearnes, Hampton & Littlewood of Exeter are holding a special Valuation Day at the Arts Centre - now is your chance to find out if that 'treasure' in the attic really is treasure! Valuations are free.

with Abigail Willis

We have some inspirational craft workshops too, including a new Mixed Media Mosaic workshop on May 8th - where you can discover how creatively reuse broken scraps of crockery, glass and found objects. Other crafts you can learn in the relaxed, friendly atmosphere of the Arts Centre include Felting, Quilting, Patchwork, Rag Rugs and Watercolours.

First comedy night at The Gateway

IT WAS always the intention to provide "something for everyone" at The Gateway, Seaton, and this theme continues with the addition of a comedy night to the wide variety of events.

Organisers at The Gateway are excited to announce the new Gateway Comedy Grove, in conjunction with Exeter Comedy Grove, for what is sure to be a fun packed night of quality comedy, expertly compered by Simon Fielder a rising star on the comedy circuit.

2010 saw Simon chosen by Bushmills Brothers as their beacon of wit and banter in everyday settings for their online campaign 'Best of Friends'.

The line up includes Ria Lina, winner of the EMMA Award for Best Comedian, Ria Lina makes an impact with her dry wit and bawdy ukulele songs, having been a regular on the international stand-up comedy for the past 14 years.

Steve Day the stand-up circuit's only deaf comedian - if there is another one, he hasn't heard! He brings his own inimitable brand of humour. 'Revelatory and very funny' (The Guardian).

Daniel Fitzhenry, a local upcoming comedian. Having spent most of his 27 years being mercilessly bullied by his own 'friends', Fitz has developed the thick skin and razor sharp wit needed to be a successful stand up.

Headliner Gary Delaney is a razor sharp one-liner comedian, who is widely regarded as being the most quotable comic on the circuit. The sheer number of outstanding gags leaves the audience struggling to remember them all.

Gary is a regular guest on Mock The Week and has also appeared on Dave's 'One Night Stand', Comedy Central's 'The Comedy Store' and 'Comedy Blue', and on Channel 4's 'Robert's Web'. He has also been on Radio 4's 'Loose Ends', Radio 5's '7 Day Saturday' and Radio 2's 'Russell Kane's Whistle-Stop Tour'.

Gary has written for many TV programmes including 8 Out of 10 Cats, Mock the Week, 10 O'Clock Live, A League of Their Own and Stand Up for the Week. Gary received two Sonys for his work for Kerrang!

The Comedy Grove at The Gateway takes place this Friday, May 8th, with doors opening 7.30pm.

Tickets £10 in advance from the Box Office 01297 625699 and from the website ticket shop www.seatongateway.co.uk. Licensed Bar & Refreshments.

NEW INSTRUCTIONS DRIVING THE Pennys

MARK Goodenough of Pennys Estate Agents reports a strong start to 2015 with the heady combination of buyer confidence returning and a healthy number of new instructions to the market. With banks keener to lend and interest rates remaining consistently low buyers have been incentivised to either move upmarket or, in the case of first time buyers, make their leap into home ownership. With the election just 2 days away, many buyers have taken the view that whatever the outcome now is the right time to make their property purchase with East Devon, and particularly coastal locations, high on the list of favoured areas. With the constant supply of new properties to the market, alongside a raft of new developments springing up, pricing and value remain paramount to achieving a successful sale as purchasers enjoy a wide choice of potential targets. To discuss your property requirements, whether buying or selling, Mark Goodenough and the Pennys team can be contacted on 01297 22224.

Volvo XC90 T8 Twin Engine in a class of its own at 49g/km CO<sub>2</sub>

XC90 T8 Twin Engine is the world's most powerful and cleanest SUV

THE Volvo XC90 T8 Twin Engine has exceeded all expectations when it comes to the no compromise equation of power and low fuel consumption, coupled with world class low emissions – and all in a 7-seat luxury SUV.

The improvement over the earlier announced figures were achieved thanks to the continuous innovation cycle at the Swedish company. The result of further tuning is a drop of 10 g/km from the initial prognosis, for up to 134.5mpg fuel economy, while also adding horsepower. This makes the XC90 T8 Twin Engine the clear leader in its segment, with an exceptional combination of low fuel consumption, emissions and pure power. "We have been working hard to earn our competitive edge and to give our customers the ultimate combination of performance and low fuel consumption. Our Twin Engine technology has enabled us to build on our heritage of efficient powertrain development in a completely new way. Thanks to our new scalable product architecture, and our world class four-cylinder engines, we have a clear and leading position," said Dr Peter Mertens, Senior Vice President Research & Development at Volvo Car Group.

No other SUV in this class can deliver 26 miles of pure electric range, 0-62mph in 5.6 seconds and provide combined power of 407 hp – all in a 7 seat configuration.

The XC90 T8 Twin Engine will be available later this spring in Volvo showrooms.

All-New Ford Galaxy from under £26,500

FORD Motor Company today announced that the all-new Galaxy will be available with all-wheel drive.

Ford's Intelligent All-Wheel Drive system delivers enhanced traction and road-holding with a seamless transition between front-wheel drive and all-wheel drive performance to provide a more secure footing, especially in slippery conditions.

Measuring how the car's wheels are gripping the road surface every 16 milliseconds – 20 times quicker than it takes to blink – the system can send up to 100 per cent of engine torque to the front or rear wheels, and make required adjustments in just 100 milliseconds. By only delivering torque where and when it is needed, Intelligent AWD has minimal impact on fuel economy and CO2 emissions compared with permanent four-wheel drive systems.

Ford is expanding the number of vehicles available with AWD. First available on Kuga, it is also available on the all-new Mondeo and S-MAX and will be offered on the Edge SUV later this year.

More grip on demand

The all-new Galaxy's Intelligent AWD is always on. The primary goal of Intelligent AWD at low speeds is to improve traction. If, for example, the front of the vehicle is on ice and the rear is not, the all-wheel-drive system can send all the torque the powertrain can produce to the rear, putting power where the driver needs it.

▼ All new Ford Galaxy

At speeds above 18mph Intelligent AWD is tuned to improve driving feel, handling and responses using information from body control, braking, gearbox and the Electronic Power Assisted Steering. By sending torque to the rear wheels when cornering at speed, the system can help reduce understeer – those situations when a vehicle's momentum causes it to continue straight instead of following the driver's intended path.

Prices start at £19,600 for the entry level S trim on the i40 Saloon, which includes standard features such as: 16" alloy wheels, Bluetooth® connectivity, air conditioning, leather wrapped steering wheel, automatic headlights with dusk sensor and steering wheel audio with telephone controls.

A new introduction, the SE Nav trim level, boasts standard fitment of Hyundai's capable touchscreen satellite navigation with rear view parking camera and parking guidance system. Priced from £21,600, the SE Nav adds to the S-model's specification with DAB radio, auto dimming rear view mirror, climate control with auto defog, heated front seats, LED front fog lights and a seven speaker sounds system. This trim level can be enhanced further in the SE Nav Business model, from £23,100, with keyless smart entry with start/stop button and driver's seat memory function.

The range topping Premium models, start at £25,600, feature 18" alloy wheels, panoramic sunroof with electric tilt and slide, luggage net, super vision instrument cluster with LCD colour display and lane departure warning.

The New i40 benefits from Hyundai's efficient Blue Drive technologies across a choice of three engines; a 1.7-litre diesel with an output of 115PS with six speed manual transmission, a 1.7-litre diesel with an output of 141PS and six speed transmission and a 1.7-litre diesel engine delivering up to 141PS with seven speed DCT.

Designed and engineered at Hyundai's European R&D headquarters New i40 benefits from refreshed styling, upgraded engines, a new transmission, improved ride and handling, and a range of new safety and convenience features.

Hyundai's European design team made a number of changes to the styling of New i40, notably the front grille and front bumper have been redesigned, along with re-shaped front and rear lights.

New i40 is available to order at Hyundai showrooms across the UK now.

(Friday, May 1st)

WITH their new Tigers' Way Ground now finally in their hands, a late goal on Friday night saw Axminster Town fail to celebrate by avoiding the Division's wooden spoon for the second time in the league's eight-year history.

The Tigers led at half time through a precise lob from midfielder Alex Wheatley's for this eighth goal of the season but were denied the three points that would have lifted them above Newton Abbot Spurs by an 83rd minute equaliser for the hosts.

TEIGNMOUTH 5 SIDMOUTH TOWN 4
AN astonishing nine goals were scored in the second half in South Devon as the home side edged this terrific contest.

The flood gates opened in the 46th minute when Vikings' skipper Aaron Doble found the net from 20 yards with a fabulous half volley that curled past Aaron Ibbetson in the Teigns' goal.

Ten minutes late Matt Eves levelled for Teignmouth, who then went in front six minutes later through Ryan Bush before Cameron Veri equalised from a corner shortly afterwards.

With 20 minutes remaining the Vikings Riki Pittler challenged Ibbetson for a high ball and then slotted the loose ball home.

In the 75th minute Sidmouth's Ashley Small was tackled from behind in the box and the Greens felt aggrieved that a penalty kick was not awarded.

Adam Fay made it 3-3 in the 80th minute despite a good initial save by keeper Charlie Ledger.

Two minutes later Sidmouth thought they had won the game when top scorer Mark Pavey rifled home a thunderous volley from 25 yards.

As the game entered the closing stages Teignmouth threw numbers forward and a succession of balls into the box first enabled Isaac Reed to equalise.

And then, deep into stoppage time, Scott Baxter found the winner for the relieved Teigns who cemented a third placed league finish for the powerful South Devon outfit.

SIDMOUTH: Ledger, Cox, Vere, Newberry, Pidgeon, Boyland, Small, Doble (C), Cooper, Pavey, Pittier: Used subs; De-Winton & Iddi.

LAPFORD extended their leadership of Division Four after a 5-2 win against MORCHARD BISHOP. However rivals ST MARTINS only played one minute at NORTH TAWTON when the match was abandoned because of a broken leg for one of the home players.

Round-up

HAWKCHURCH United's bid to secure a Division Three promotion place was put on ice last Monday evening.

The Hawks, bidding to make a return to Division Two after a gap of four seasons, went down 4-1 at already-promoted Barrington Reserves who turn clinched the Division Three title.

Top-scorer Andy Dymond netted the consolation for Martin Bright's side.

Hawkchurch's wait for the elusive point that would seal their promotion is set to go to the final day after a Merriott saved their own Division Three status with a victory on Saturday.

Dynamons deservedly led through an Alex Manley goal at half-time having been on top in the opening 45 minutes.

The visitors improved after the break but were denied an equaliser by a superb save from Merriott gloveman Casper Payne.

The hosts doubled their advantage when good work from Luke Culver led to Barry Hayne bagged his 16th goal of the season.

The result was confirmed by a killer third goal from Louie Roper.

Dynamons victory means Dowlish & Donyatt will be heading down into Division Four while Hawkchurch must now travel to Jocelyn Park next Saturday still needing a point while opponents Chard Rangers, who have sneaked up on the rails over recent weeks, could yet pinch the promotion spot from under the Hawks noses (or beaks) with a victory.

Hippos hit the heights!

◆ PREMIER BOUND: Honiton Town brought the curtain down on a magnificent league season with a rare defeat at Exmouth Amateurs on Saturday. 'The Hippos' ran away with the Devon & Exeter League Division One title to earn a welcome return to the Premier Division after a gap of almost 20 years. Pictured above, standing, from left; John Capon (Sponsors - Otter Windows), Garry Osborne, Joe Mulhall, Dan Broom, Jordan Stickland, Steve Trenchard, Darren Witt, Lewis Couch, Craig Sluman, Andy Isaac, John Connett. ◆ SHORT MAT CHAMPIONS: THIRTY six teams took part in the annual Axe Valley Short Mat Two Pair / Fours competition was held at Cloakham Lawns recently. The final saw Oecombe Blues take an early lead but Upottery's City Farmers responded to take the next five ends to lead eight one and eventually clinch the win. The two pair / fours is a mathematical exercise where pairs are linked with another pair, usually from the same club, the points won by each pair through the whole competition are added together, this was won by Upottery's City Farmers and Upottery's Lion Bar. The trophies were presented by competition organiser Caroline Pavey.
